

SCHOOL ANXIETY SCALE

Child's Name _____

	Never	Sometimes	Often	Always
This child is afraid of asking questions in class.
This child speaks only when someone asks a question of them.
This child worries what other people think of him/her.
This child does not volunteer answers or comments during class.
This child is afraid of making mistakes.
This child hates being the center of attention.
This child hesitates in starting tasks or asks whether they understood the task before starting.
This child worries about things.
This child worries that he/she will do badly at school.
This child worries that something bad will happen to him/her.
This child seems very shy.
This child complains of headaches, stomach aches or feeling sick.
This child feels afraid when he/she has to talk in front of the class.
This child hesitates to speak when in group situations.
When this child has a problem, he/she feels shaky.
This child appears nervous when approached by other children or adults.

TOTAL SCORE

GAD
SD
Total	